In re: 700 MHz Interoperable Broadband Public Safety Broadband Network PS Docket 06-229

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On August 17, 2010, Roger Quayle, Chief Technology Officer and Co-Founder of IPWireless and I, the undersigned met with Jamie Barnett, Jennifer Manner, Gene Fullano, Behzad Ghaffari, Pat Amodio, Yoon Chang, Jason Kim, and Jerry Stanshine of the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau, Michael Ha and Walter Johnson of the Office of Engineering Technology, Ziad Sleen of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, and Jeff Bratcher, Emil Olbrich and Rangam Subramanian from NIST to participate in the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau's Interoperability Vendor Workshop. Along with representatives of Alcatel-Lucent, Ericsson, LG Electronics, Samsung Motorola, we participated in a discussion of issues related to the status of current LTE development and the ability to provision the public safety community with technology for the proposed 700 MHz public safety broadband network. A copy of the presentation provided by IPWireless is included with this submission.

Respectfully Submitted,
